Shadows

When you graduate and move on in life, a part of you will always stay at EHS. It isn't the graffiti on the wall, the engraved initials on a desk top, or the number of times you have been called up to the office which makes every senior a special memory at EHS after Graduation Day. It is each graduating senior's honest effort toward an achievement, big or small, that becomes an inspiration, and leaves a lasting impression in the minds of underclassmen which inspires them to achieve too. An admired and respected senior who is remembered, is like a shadow, "For when the shadow fades and is no more, the light that lingers becomes a shadow to another light." Kahlil Gibran, The Prophet

Blood, Sweat, And Tears

The football team produced a good season ending with a 5-4 record. One highlight of the season was being rated third in the regional poll. The most suspensfull game was the fight against Lisbon. The peak of the teams spirit and enthusiasm came during this game. It paid off with a fine victory. We had three exceptional players named to the South East All-Conference team. They were Al Coleman, Gene Crabtree, and Paul Sand. All of the coaches seemed to think the team was a fine one and gave a lot of themselves during the season.

Girls Go To Regionals

The girls basketball team had a 15-8 win-loss record. In the first annual South-East Conference tournament, the Cards placed second. They lost to Lisbon in the championship game, 68-40.

In the first and second rounds of District play, the Cards overtook Marion and Oakes to advance to the championship game against Montpelier. The Cards were beaten by Montpelier 50-48. This enabled LaMoure to challenge them for second place. They finally earned their right to make their first appearance in Regionals by defeating LaMoure.

The most memorable game was the victory over the number eighth rated team in the state, Lidgerwood. The score seesawed back and forth throughout the game. The Cards finally squeezed a one point victory 34-33, after one overtime. In the semi-finals Lisbon defeated them. In the consolation game the Cards overtook Central Cass 51-30, to take third place in Region 1.

Named to the South East Conference team were Wendy Hansen, Lisa Voegeli, and Debbie Hokana. Coach Wenaas commented that it was the best year that the girls basketball team has ever had. He feels with the nine returning winners, the Cards will have a good nucleus to build another winning team on.

Fastbreak

The boys basketball team finished the 1980-81 season with a 11-10 win loss record. The Cardinals lost the Cowbell game 55-43. The most memorable game was against Oakes when the Cards won 42-34. The game was called with six minutes to go in the fourth quarter due to the slippery floor. In the first round of District play, Ellendale defeated LaMoure 66-58. In the second round, Cards met Marion but failed to come up victorious. In the consolation game Ellendale beat Verona 60-49. The Cards weren't given the chance to challenge due to the fact they had lost earlier to Marion in the tournament. Alan Coleman and Rick VanGarven were named to the South-East All-Conference team.

Sweat And More Sweat

The Cardinal Wrestling team enjoyed a good season with a record of 8-5. Coach Ulmer was very pleased with their outcome. He felt they did exceptionally well for such a young and inexperienced team. As a team, they did well in tournaments. They received second in the Ellendale Invitational. First place was taken at the Wishek Tournament. The Cards came away with fourth place at the Conference tourney held in Ellendale. At regionals, held in LaMoure, they received second place and qualified seven wrestlers for state. The qualifiers were Jim Flynn at 98, Norm Hagen at 105, Mark Boniek at 112, Scot Brandenburger at 145, Dave Barton at 155, Shane Myers at 167, and Perry DeWald at 185. Coach Ulmer feels they gained valuable experience by participating at the state level.

We've Got Spirit

The EHS Cheerleaders kept busy with activity throughout the sport season. Pep-fests were great spirit builders with all of the humorous skits and new cheers. Posters were made and put up to encourage enthusiasm.

With the help of the fans, they cheered the teams on. Flips, splits, and pyramids were all a part of their cheers and no matter what the stunt, grace was always used. The cheerleaders were advised by Mary Ulmer.

Self-discipline was a lasting lesson learned by the 1989 Cardettes. It had to be in order for all twelve members to be able to slide into the splits. Remembering that practice makes perfect, the Cardettes spent hours after school with Advisor Mary Ulmer imprinting it into their minds that they all had to stretch and point their toes. The girls performed at four home games and at the District tournaments in Valley City. The precision drill team entertained the Cardinal fans with routines to a toy soldier medley and to the tune "Rock That". On March 28, they entered the State Drill Team Competition at Central Valley High School. It was their French braids, eye-catching outfits, sweet smiles, and most of all the practice that proudly earned the Cardettes a second place trophy under stiff competition.

The annual staff enjoyed putting it together for their classmates. We hope to have captured all the excitement of the year in these pictures and articles because it is a book of memories that should last for a long time. In years to come it should be a pleasure to pull it out, reread the autographs, and reminisce of all the good old times. We hope you enjoy it.*

Honor Band

Being in band is not just merely playing an instrument for one class period a day. As band members know, it takes long hours of individual and group practice. When this is perfected, travel and participating is next. The reward is knowing that the audience is pleased.

The band started off the year with marching. After hours of practice on the street, they competed in parades at Aberdeen and Jamestown. The band also marched in Ellendale for the Rodeo Parade and Memorial Day Parade.

After marching, they began concentrating on ELOE music which was held in Edgeley this year with Edgeley, Oakes, and Ellendale participating. The guest conductor was Mr. Ulmer, a teacher from Jamestown.

The concert band earned a double star rating at contest. They were then given the privilege of performing as honor band at the concert.

To add to their activities, they performed in a Christmas and Spring Concert for the community. The band was directed by Miss Mary Deike.

Makin' Music

The Stage Band was very active. They performed a special number at the band ELOE. The band entertained at the Nursing Center for their "Rock and Roll" Jamboree on Valentine's Day. When contest time came, they performed two selections with a number of solos. In the spring, they joined the Swing Choir to put on a Pops Concert. They were under the direction of Miss Mary Deike.

The Swing Choir entertained people with their jazzy songs and quickstep dances. They performed a special number at the choral ELOE. They worked many hours on choreography and memorization of music when getting ready for the Pops Concert. To show their flexibility, they did a classical number for the Spring Concert and also entered it at District Large Group Contest. They received a star rating. They were directed by Mrs. Dorene Babcock.

Harmonizing

The chorus was busy with activity throughout the year. Their first task was to learn the many pieces in choral for ELOE, which was held in Oakes. In December, they performed in the Christmas Concert. About mid-way through the year, they received a new piano which was greatly needed and appreciated. At large group contest, the girls and mixed chorus put forth a good effort and enjoyed the day. The year was wrapped up with the Spring Concert. They were under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Gebhardt.

Spirit Comes Alive

Homecoming

Queen Tina Rada and King Dave Hokana reigned over the 1980 Homecoming activities. In their court were Wendy Hansen, Lisa Voegeli, Shiann Ostlund, Holly Bobzien, Rick VanGarven, Glenn Mastel, Paul Sand, and Alan Coleman. To start off the week, everyone came to school in grubbies on Monday. Relay races were held at noon. Members of the Senior Class combined efforts to take first place in the "Lifesaver Pass." The Juniors were winners in the "Orange Pass." First place was handed down to the eighth grade in the "People Pass." There was no time to snooze in on Tuesday morning as first thing in the morning, sleepy students were off to a Pajama-Hop. On Wednesday, Dress-up Day, everyone had to suffer in their Sunday best. As in the days of Ancient Greece, students roamed the halls in togas on Thursday. The girl's basketball managers put on a pep-fest to fire up the team that afternoon. The Cardinal girls out-hustled Verona 47-30. Red and Black Day was held on Friday. At the pep-fest, Mr. Johnson, using a slow steady turtle-like strategy, won the chug-a-lug contest. Those who didn't follow the week's dress code were awarded a pie in the face. The pep fest and cheering fans were spirit builders which lead the football team on to a 14-6 victory over Lisbon. To celebrate all the victories of the week, White Mountain Grand played for the dance after the football game.

Country Christmas

The Student Council and FHA sponsored this year's Snowball "Country Christmas". The multi-purpose room was decorated to look like an old fashion barn dance. Students dressed appropriately wearing boots, hats, and western clothes. The student body enjoyed dancing to the country-western band "Nightrider". The candidates included seniors Ricky VanGarven and Sheila Richter, juniors Todd Bertsch and Debbie Hokana, sophomores Keith Fredericks and Kay Fuller, freshman Kurt Diede and Lisa Buchholz. Ricky VanGarven and Debbie Hokana were crowned the 1980-81 Snoball King and Queen.

The Jr.-Sr. Prom

The Jr. - Sr. prom was held Friday April 24th. The theme was "Sailing" and the colors were royal blue, light blue, and white. The prom had a few new things added this year. Juniors and seniors could invite their dates to join them at the banquet, which was catered by the Cabin West. James Johnson, the guest speaker, gave an amusing and yet inspirational speech. Dickey Central and Forbes were invited to attend. Everybody enjoyed dancing and listening to the band "Easy Road." After the dance, everyone was invited to attend the movie, "The Promise."

In Contest

EHS was well represented in District Music Contests. In large group competition, the band received a double-star rating. The Madrigal singers also preformed well scoring a star rating. In small group contests the Four Plus One, Girls Trio, Triple Trio, Octet, and Soloists Alysene Dunn and Lori Pahl were awarded top-notch ratings advancing them to state where the four Plus One and Triple Trio came away with stars.

Speech students were more active than ever. In District Contests, Melodee Zink took second place, earning her way to the state contest. Other winners at District were Alan Coleman with a third in Radio Broadcast, Laurie Zimmerman with a third in Dramatic Interpretation and Tina Rada with a fourth in a Speech to Inform.

The Drama Department did well this year, too. They earned the right to compete in state competition with their performance of "The Lottery".

Seniors

Along with all the hard work and fun activities, the seniors still found time for daily discussions in the Senior Lounge, a privilege enjoyed throughout the entire year. The seniors chose to have April 27 as the last day for Physical Education, study halls, and music classes. It was a tight squeeze, but all 31 members managed to crowd into a living room display at Jay's Hi-Way Furniture to pose for a class picture. After a busy year, the seniors decided they needed to get away from it all at Clear Lake on May 19 and 20.

The Ellendale High School Class of 1981 enjoyed their year at the top. Now they move into a new phase of life with yesterday being today's memory and tomorrow being today's dream.

Following an EHS tradition, the Junior class took their turn as magazine salesmen. A bake sale was held to build up the class treasury. Breaking an old tradition, they put on a new variation of the prom with the theme "Sailing" for the Seniors. Class officers were President Dan Betting, Vice President Deb Hokana, Secretary Donna Schmidt, and Treasurer Brenda McCown.
